Save the Date: Corporate Event

Architectural Guild Corporate Event

Saturday, April 8, 2006

9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Invitations are forthcoming to the Architectural Guild's Corporate Event, an event that is held annually to provide special recognition to our Corporate and Life Members for their exceptional support to the Guild and the USC School of Architecture. This year's venue is the Galen Center, a 255,000-square-foot basketball and volleyball arena adjacent to the USC campus scheduled for completion later in 2006. We hope that our Corporate and Life Members will be able to join us for a fascinating behind-the-scenes tour and reception.
