to City of Quartz author and UC Irvine Professor Mike Davis.

The reception is scheduled to begin at 5:30 p.m. in the Del Mar Station Plaza; complete details and an invitation are available here.

Save the Date: Economics of Historic Preservation Event
What is the Value of Historic Preservation OR Should we KEEP IT UP OR TEAR IT DOWN?

Thursday, January 11, 2007 in Harris Hall on the USC Campus
Reception at 6:00 p.m. followed by Panel Discussion at 7:00 p.m.

The Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors, LA Architect Magazine, the USC Architectural Guild, APT, and the USC School of Policy, Planning, and Development's Master of Real Estate Development program will be presenting a panel discussion exploring whether development and historic preservation are inherently in conflict. Confirmed Speakers include: Dan Rosenfeld (Urban Partners), Steve Williams (2005 President of the RICS), and Jay Turnbull (Page and Turnbull, San Francisco). Ann Gray, FAIA and CEO/Publisher of Balcony Media Incorporated will moderate. Mark your calendars for this event!

USC School of Architecture Mentor Program: Mentors Needed!

The USC School of Architecture Mentor Program seeks to bring together architecture/building/construction/real estate professionals with current undergraduate and graduate students at the USC School of Architecture. Mentors are paired with students under the guidance of the School of Architecture and the Architectural Guild based on the preferences, interests, and specialties of each participant. Professionals in the fields of architecture, planning, construction, and real estate are needed; please let us know if you are interested in participating in this rewarding program!
