THE COMPETITION:
The competition, in two phases, involves the programming and design of the library of the future. The neighborhood library of the future will, undoubtedly, be a facility that is quite different from today’s library. The roles libraries play in the life of a neighborhood will evolve over time to provide a new and altered service to the public. What will those services be and into what physical form will the library morph to serve the community?

PHASE 1: A Program For Designing A Neighborhood Library Of The Future
PHASE 2: Design Of A Neighborhood Library Of The Future (using the winning program from Phase 1)

PRIZES:
PHASE 1: First Place: $500
   Second Place: $200
PHASE 2: First Place: $1000
   Second Place: $500
All qualified entrants can receive IDP core hour credits. Everyone wins!

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?:
The competition is open to all NACRB/IDP participants. The project submissions can be from individuals or teams. Credit for IDP hours is available to all participants working with a mentor. Each participant will be responsible for self-reporting hours as detailed in the IDP Guidelines. A maximum of 400 hours is available to participants. Available hours for Phase 1 will be a maximum of 100 hours. The remaining hours will be available to the Phase 2 entrants.

SCHEDULE:
PHASE 1: October 1, 2013 Submissions Due
          October 7, 2013 Winners Announced
PHASE 2: December 11, 2013 Submissions Due
          January 7, 2014 Winners Announced

HOW TO ENTER:
Complete application form available at www.aiasfv.org and mail to:
AIA San Fernando Valley
16255 Ventura Blvd., Suite 515
Encino, CA 91436

Along with application, submit fee by check (PHASE 1: $50 for each Associate AIA member or $75 for each non-AIA member. PHASE 2: $75 for each Associate AIA member or $100 for each non-AIA member. Teams will pay the individual fee for each member of the team.

SPONSORED BY:
STOCK BUILDING SUPPLY & JELD-WEN